Meet the Cat Residents

Milo: A wise and gentle tomcat, Milo serves as the guardian of the cloisters. With his watchful gaze and calming presence, he embodies the spirit of the cathedral.

Tigger: A mischievous and energetic ginger tabby, Tigger brings laughter and excitement to the cloisters. His playful antics and boundless curiosity keep the other cats entertained.

Tabitha: A sophisticated and elegant Persian, Tabitha exudes an air of mystery and intrigue. Her keen observations and quiet wisdom make her a valuable member of the feline community.

Poppy: A timid and shy calico, Poppy finds comfort in the shadows of the cloisters. Her gentle nature and hidden strength inspire compassion and admiration among the other cats.

Jasper: A sleek and agile black cat, Jasper is a skilled hunter and a loyal companion. His protective instincts and unwavering determination make him an indispensable member of the group.

Their Extraordinary Adventures

As the sun rises each morning, the cloister cats embark on their daily adventures. They chase mice through the ancient ruins, sunbathe in the dappled sunlight, and explore the hidden nooks and crannies of their beloved home.

But their lives are not without challenges. When a mysterious stranger arrives at the cathedral, the cats must band together to protect their territory and the secrets they hold dear.

The Bond Between Cat and Human

Throughout their adventures, the cloister cats form unbreakable bonds with the humans who care for them. The cathedral's librarian, Father Michael, finds solace in their presence, while the young novice, Brother Thomas, discovers the true meaning of compassion through his interactions with them.

The cats return this affection with unwavering loyalty and protection. They become guardians of the cathedral, preserving its ancient traditions and safeguarding its sacred spaces.
