Follow the fates of two extraordinary soldiers: Quintus Licinius Cato, a seasoned centurion, and Macro, a loyal Greek slave-turned-auxiliary. As tensions rise between the emperor Claudius and his ambitious general, Aulus Plautius, Cato and Macro find themselves caught in the crossfire of treachery and political intrigue.

With vivid prose and meticulous historical detail, Scarrow paints a breathtaking tapestry of the Roman world, from the grandeur of the imperial palace to the brutality of the battlefields. Through the eyes of Cato and Macro, we witness the horrors of war, the complexities of Roman society, and the unyielding determination of those who fight for what they believe.
