This extraordinary anthology gathers more than one hundred poems from the Armenian literary tradition, spanning from the 19th to the early 20th century. These poems explore the profound themes of faith, spirituality, and the search for meaning in a turbulent world.

The poets in this collection come from diverse backgrounds and experiences, but they are united by their shared faith and their commitment to using poetry as a means of expressing their deepest thoughts and feelings. Their poems offer a glimpse into the lives of Armenians during a time of great change and upheaval, and they provide a testament to the enduring power of faith.

The poems in this anthology are divided into four sections:

- God and the World: Poems that explore the nature of God, the relationship between God and humanity, and the place of humanity in the universe.
- The Search for Meaning: Poems that explore the human search for meaning and purpose in life, often in the face of adversity.
- The Power of Prayer: Poems that explore the power of prayer to heal, comfort, and transform.
- The Armenian Experience: Poems that explore the Armenian experience, including the Armenian Genocide and the Armenian diaspora.

This anthology is a valuable resource for anyone interested in Armenian literature, poetry, or religion. It is also a moving and inspiring collection of poems that will appeal to readers of all backgrounds.

Praise for Prayer
