With contributions from a constellation of talented poets, "South Flight" paints a vivid tapestry of the region, weaving together voices both familiar and new. From the rolling hills of Appalachia to the vibrant streets of New Orleans, the poems in this anthology capture the essence of a place that is steeped in history, tradition, and boundless creativity.

A Chorus of Voices from the Literary South

"South Flight" showcases a chorus of diverse voices, each offering a unique perspective on the complexities and wonders of the American South. Among the featured poets are such luminaries as Natasha Trethewey, Pulitzer Prize winner and former U.S. Poet Laureate; Jericho Brown, National Book Award winner; and Terrance Hayes, National Book Award finalist.

Their poems range from meditations on race and identity to explorations of nature and the human condition. They celebrate the resilience and spirit of the South while also confronting its challenges and injustices. Together, they create a nuanced and multifaceted portrait of a region that is as captivating as it is complex.

Exploring the Depths of Southern Culture

Beyond its literary excellence, "South Flight" serves as a window into the rich cultural tapestry of the American South. The poems in this anthology delve into the region's musical traditions, its culinary delights, and its unique sense of place. They evoke the rhythms of blues and jazz, the aromas of soul food, and the warmth of Southern hospitality.

Through these poetic explorations, readers gain a deeper understanding of the cultural forces that have shaped the South and continue to influence its identity today. "South Flight" is not merely a collection of poems; it is a cultural tour de force, celebrating the vibrant spirit and enduring legacy of the American South.

A Poetic Mosaic for Our Time

In an era marked by division and uncertainty, "South Flight" offers a timely reminder of the power of poetry to bridge gaps and foster understanding. By bringing together a diverse array of voices, this anthology creates a mosaic of perspectives that illuminates the common threads that bind us all.

The poems in "South Flight" challenge us to confront our prejudices, embrace our differences, and celebrate the beauty and resilience of the human spirit. They serve as a beacon of hope in a world that often feels fractured and divided.
