In the gritty, drug-infested underbelly of Manchester, there are dreams that are born out of desperation and addiction. Sulphated Dreams is a powerful and moving novel that explores the dark side of the city, and the lives of those who are lost in its grip.

The novel follows the story of Jimmy, a young man who is struggling to cope with the loss of his mother. He turns to heroin as a way to escape his pain, but soon finds himself spiraling down a dangerous path. As his addiction worsens, Jimmy loses everything that is important to him, including his friends, his family, and his job.
