“Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered, weak and weary,

Over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore—

When the nights were long and cold, and the days were short and old,

And the fire burned low and the wind blew cold,

And the snow fell fast and the ice grew bold,

And the raven sat upon the bust of Pallas just above my door,

Quoth the raven, "Nevermore."”

From "The Raven" by Edgar Allan Poe

“I became a prey to the tumultuous vultures of deep sleep—

And the fever called Lenore

Came down upon me—and sank into my heart

And clung unto me until I fell with the weight

Of chains—into the Final Pit.”

From "The Raven" by Edgar Allan Poe
