Anya is the daughter of the late King Eldrin, but she has been exiled from the kingdom since she was a child. Now, with the kingdom on the brink of war, Anya must return and face her fears and prejudices to save her people.

But Anya is not the only one who seeks the throne. The ambitious Lord Varthak has his own plans for Eldoria, and he will stop at nothing to claim the crown for himself.

As Anya and Varthak clash in a battle for the ages, they will discover that the fate of the kingdom rests on their shoulders. Will Anya be able to overcome her fears and prejudices and claim her rightful place as queen? Or will Varthak's ambition plunge Eldoria into darkness?

To Hold the Crown is an epic fantasy novel that will transport you to a realm of adventure, magic, and power. With its complex characters, heart-pounding action, and stunning world-building, this book is sure to become a classic of the genre.
