In "Medieval Noir Mystery: Crispin Guest Mystery 11," renowned author J.J. Marric weaves an intricate tale of intrigue, murder, and long-buried secrets. Step into the shoes of Crispin Guest, a cunning investigator with a keen eye for detail, as he embarks on a dangerous journey to uncover the truth.

When a prominent lord is found brutally murdered in the heart of a snow-covered forest, the local sheriff is quick to point the finger at a vagrant accused of witchcraft. But Crispin Guest senses a deeper, more sinister truth hidden beneath the surface. Driven by an insatiable curiosity, he delves into the shadowy realms of deception and betrayal.

As Crispin uncovers a web of hidden motives and scandalous affairs, he encounters an array of enigmatic characters. There's the enigmatic Lady Sybil, whose enigmatic gaze holds secrets of her own. The cunning Sir Geoffrey, a ruthless opportunist with a penchant for violence. And the enigmatic Abbot, whose pious exterior masks a cunning mind.

With each clue he uncovers, Crispin finds himself navigating a treacherous labyrinth of power struggles, ancient feuds, and unrequited love. He must confront his own demons and confront the darkest corners of human nature. As the stakes escalate, Crispin faces a deadly game of cat and mouse, where the hunter can quickly become the hunted.

Immerse yourself in the atmospheric setting of medieval England, a world of crumbling castles, flickering candles, and treacherous forests. Marric's vivid prose transports you to a time where superstition and violence blend seamlessly.

Crispin Guest, the enigmatic protagonist, is a master of deduction and an astute observer of human behavior. His sharp intellect and unwavering determination make him an unforgettable character that readers will root for from page one.

"Medieval Noir Mystery: Crispin Guest Mystery 11" is an unputdownable historical mystery that combines the intrigue of a classic whodunit with the rich tapestry of medieval life.
