CAN THE CHURCH BE INVOLVED IN POLITICS?
SHOULD THE CHURCH BE INVOLVED IN POLITICS?

Absolutely yes on both counts! The Bible offers strong precedent, and the Founding Fathers made it clear that they considered Christian involvement and the voice of the pulpit essential to good government, and that the pulpit should address the realms of public policy and political leadership among other Biblical topics. In recent decades, there has been a diligent, concerted effort by many secularist organizations to keep Christians and Christian leaders not only out of politics but also from speaking about its issues, but Christians should not fear or draw back from direct involvement.
